

Inauguration of The story of India's partition The horrors of partition

Our country is going to commemorate 76 years of independence and on the day prior to this the government of India has decided to remember 14 August as partition horrors remembrance day .The initiative to enlight the land of lord Jagannath is taken by Shri Dharmendra Pradhan honourable Union minister of Education and minister of skill development and entrepreneurship under the leadership of professor Raghuvendra Tomar , chairman, ICHR . The other dignitaries were Shri Ganeshi Lal , honourable governor of Odhisha, Shri Soumya Ranjan Pattnaik, honourable minister of Odhisha legislative assembly, Shri Bhartruhari Mahtab , honourable member of The Lok Sabha , Ms Aparajita Sarangi , honourable member of The Lok sabha . All of them were felicitated by professor Raghuvendra Tomar.

While addressing the audience Professor Raghuvendra Tomar has made the objective very clear by saying that it is high time to rewrite the history as a lot hidden truth is to be explored by our coming generations. The horrific days of partition were full of jeopardy and the survivors still have those nightmare. We all should know how have we got freedom and at what cost ? This will enable the future generations to know what is not to be done while reading History.

The survivors and all the freedom fighters were also felicitated by the dignitaries. Mr Om Prakash Hans , Rajendra Kumar Dhawant and Mrs Ishwar Dhupar , Mr Satish Narula, Mrs Vandana Hans were the names of the people who received immense appreciation for their invincible stories. They truly represent what valour is .

Our beloved principal ma'am Mrs Deeptimoyee Mohanty was being invited for the inauguration ceremony and she had given the golden opportunity to Subodh Sir , Bikas Sir , Rachita ma'am along with Abanti ma'am and Juli ma'am to be a part of such mega event . The Exhibition will last till 18 August and our students would take part in various competitions. This will enable our students to look at our History with different mindset.

A day ended with a lot of patriotism and we the teachers are grateful to our ma'am for the great opportunity.
